

HOMELAND SECURITY AFFAIRS

THE JOURNAL (HSA) OF NPS-CHDS

ABOUT THE JOURNAL

Homeland Security Affairs is the peer-reviewed online journal of the Naval Postgraduate School Center for Homeland Defense and Security (CHDS), providing a forum to propose and debate strategies, policies, and organizational arrangements to strengthen U.S. homeland security. The instructors, participants, alumni, and partners of CHDS represent the leading subject matter experts and practitioners in the field of homeland security.

Sponsored by the U. S. Department of Homeland Security's National Preparedness Directorate, FEMA, CHDS is part of the Naval Postgraduate School (NPS). CHDS provides graduate and executive education programs to the nation's homeland security leaders, including governors, mayors, senior tribal, territorial, federal and private sector officials and select military officers. CHDS also operates the Homeland Security Digital Library, which is the authoritative tool for research in the field of homeland security policy and strategy.

JOURNAL CONTENT

Homeland Security Affairs captures the best of scholars and practitioners throughout the nation, through peer-reviewed articles on new strategies, policies, concepts and data relating to every aspect of homeland security. These articles constitute not only the "smart practices" but also the evolution of homeland security as an emerging academic and professional discipline.

Homeland Security Affairs accepts submissions of original research articles, short-form articles, essays and media reviews.

Co-authored papers are acceptable and papers may be excerpted from a larger work (e.g. a thesis or book manuscript).

Homeland Security Affairs is an open access journal. This means that users may, free of charge, read, download, copy, distribute, print, search, link to the full texts of these articles, or use them for any other lawful purpose.

The copyright of all articles published in Homeland Security Affairs rests with the author[s] of the articles. Any commercial use of Homeland Security Affairs or the articles published is expressly prohibited without the written consent of the copyright holder. Anyone can copy, distribute, or reuse these articles as long as the author and original source are properly cited.
